

Read Aloud Texts

The following texts have been carefully selected for each year group to enjoy during story time each day. The books often link to children's writing outcomes supporting the development of language and grammatical skills. Teachers read aloud these texts promoting a love of reading across fiction, non-fiction and poetry genres. This is not an exhaustive list, however the books selected are protected for specific year groups to ensure progression. Teachers may dip in and out of non-fiction and read extracts that are interesting to children during story time.

Suggested accompanying texts are listed on the writing long term plans for teachers to also draw upon.

Year group	Autumn Term	Spring Term	Summer Term
EYFS	Teachers read aloud a range of fiction, non-fiction, traditional tales, nursery rhymes and poetry throughout the day during story time and across indoor and outdoor provision, on a one to one basis, in small groups and enjoy as a whole class.
